

StarTex
TITLE COMPANY, LLC

Our History

StarTex Title Company, LLC began as an independent agent in 1999 with an asset purchase of a small Fort Bend County Title Company and has evolved into a full service title company with fourteen branches in four counties. In 2004, it was purchased by Stewart Title Company and was a wholly owned subsidiary; however StarTex is now owned by Sid. W. Terry and Albert E. Butler, making it the largest independent title agency within metropolitan Houston. It is underwritten by both Stewart Title Guaranty Company and Old Republic Title Company affording us the financial stability and flexibility required to handle any size transaction.

StarTex has assembled one of the most dynamic and experienced management teams in the title industry. As a result, StarTex Title Company is proud to have forged lasting relationships with prominent real estate professionals throughout the area. The values are put forth in our core principles, or best-practices methodology, and the expertise and character of our people. StarTex Title Company has raised the bar for the title industry, exemplifying that it is not just the name on the door, but the people inside that defines an exceptional title company. StarTex consistently ranks as the 3rd largest title agency in metropolitan Houston based on its market share. Our success can be accredited to the experienced professional employees whose personal service and client relationships balance the impersonal necessities of paper within the closing process.

StarTex Title Company has a proven history of delivering the very highest value to clients to handle their title industry needs. In forming these relationships, our clients' success drives our own success.
